(4) No. 1529/36-M, dated the 11th March 1942.
(5) No. 660/36-M, dated the 20th February 1942, and to state that in supersession of the orders issued ther in Government is pleased to extend the period of 18 months prescribed in clause 5 of the above mentioned license for the completion of the works and the commencement of supply until three years after the termination of war subject to the condition that this concession shall will not exempt the licensee from possible post-war legislation to prevent the exploitation of the public.

2. I am to add that the Government of India will not entertain any application for and no assistance will be given in securing priority for obtaining plant, fuel, oil or any other material required by you. I would, accordingly advise you that, if you have not sufficiently advanced, you should liquidate your assests and have your license cancelled rather than proceed further and suffer greater losses. The Government of India in this Connection will do their best to find a suitable location for any plant and equipment which you may have actually purchased.

Yours...

Yours faithfully,

R. H. HAMMETT,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Public Works Department.
